CASE NO.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF ACTION
UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 1453(b)

State Court Complaint Filed: December 26,
2007

17 TO THE CLERK OF THE COURT:

18 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant Sony Electronics Inc. ("Sony" or the 19 "Company") hereby removes to this Court the action originally filed in the Superior Court of 20 California in the County of San Diego. The grounds for this removal are:

21 SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT AND BASIS FOR FEDERAL JURISDICTION

22 1. This action involves the sale of Sony's VAIO PCG notebook computers.
23 Plaintiff's class claims are predicated on allegations of unfair competition practices, false and 24 misleading advertising, and breach of warranty. Plaintiff has brought this action as a putative
25 class action identifying one potential class: "All persons or entities who purchased Sony
26 Vaio[sic] PCG laptops in the PCG series. Excluded from this Class are Defendant, its 27 affiliates, employees, officers and directors, persons or entities which distribute or sell Vaio
28 PCG laptops, and the Court." See Complaint, ¶ 13.

1 2. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action based on the
2 diversity-of-citizenship and amount-in-controversy requirements applicable to class actions
3 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), the Class Action Fairness Act (CAFA). The 4 diversity-of-citizenship requirement is satisfied because at least one member of the putative
5 class is a citizen of a state different from at least one defendant. While Sony disputes the 6 damages allegations, the amount-in-controversy requirement is satisfied because the 7 aggregated claims of the individual members of the putative class are alleged to exceed the 8 sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

9 TIMELY REMOVAL

10 3. This notice of removal is timely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1446(b) and 1453(b)
11 because it is "filed within 30 days after the receipt by (Sony), through service or otherwise, 12 of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which such action or 13 proceeding is based."

14 4. On December 26, 2007, Plaintiff Miguel Cabrera commenced this action by 15 filing in the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of San Diego, a 16 complaint captioned MIGUEL CABRERA, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly 17 Situated and the General Public, Plaintiff, v. SONY ELECTRONICS INC., and Does I through
18 10 inclusive, Defendant. The action was designated as Case No. 37-2007-00084569-CU-
19 BC-CTL. Exhibit A is a copy of the Complaint.

20 5. On January 7, 2008, Sony's corporate agent for service of process received by 21 personal service a copy of the Complaint and Summons. In addition, Sony's agent also 22 received a Notice of Case Assignment, a blank Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution
23 Process, a Notice to Litigants/ADR Information Package, and a Civil Case Cover Sheet.
24 Exhibit B is a copy of the Summons, and Exhibit C contains copies of the remaining 25 documents.

26 6. Collectively the documents attached as Exhibits A-C constitute "all process, 27 pleadings, and orders" served upon Sony to date in the San Diego Superior Court action.
28 See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a).

1 7. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), Sony is filing a copy of this Notice of 2 Removal with the Clerk of the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, and
3 serving Plaintiff with the Notice of Removal.

4 THIS COURT HAS ORIGINAL JURISDICTION UNDER 28 U.S.C. 1332(d)(2)

5 8. This action is a civil action of which this Court has original jurisdiction under 6 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A). Sony may remove this action to this Court pursuant to the 7 provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1446 and 1453(b) because it is a putative class action in which 8 the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and 9 costs. Furthermore, at least one member of the putative class is a citizen of a state different 10 from the defendant.

11 DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP

12 9. The Complaint alleges that Plaintiff Miguel Cabrera purchased a VAIO PCG-
13 550 notebook in California. See Complaint, ¶ 25.

14 10. Sony was at the time of the commencement of this action, and still is, a
15 Delaware corporation with a principal place of business in San Diego, California.

16 11. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as a representative of a putative
17 class:

18 All persons or entities who purchased Sony Vaio PCG laptops in the PCG
19 series. Excluded from this Class are Defendant, its affiliates, employees, 20 officers and directors, persons or entities which distribute or sell Vaio PCG laptops, and the Court. See Complaint, ¶ 13.

21 12. Plaintiff's allegations regarding the "all persons or entities" satisfy the diversity
22 of citizenship test set forth in section 1332(d)(2)(A). This class is believed to consist of 23 putative plaintiffs who are citizens of all fifty states because there are persons and entities
24 from numerous states who purchased Sony VAIO PCG notebooks in the PCG series. Many 25 members of the putative class therefore are citizens of a state different from the defendant
26 because the citizenship of Sony is limited to the states of Delaware and California.

27 ///

28 ///

AMOUNT-IN-CONTROVERSY

13. The amount-in-controversy requirement of section 1332(d)(2) is satisfied because Plaintiff seeks, inter alia, restitution and disgorgement of all amounts obtained by Sony in the sale of VAIO PCG notebooks; actual and/or statutory damages for injuries suffered by Plaintiff and the Class; and punitive damages. The amount in controversy therefore exceeds the sum value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs. See Complaint, "Prayer For Relief" ¶¶ B, C, and D.

14. According to Plaintiff, "the members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical." See Complaint, ¶ 14. Furthermore, Plaintiff estimates that there are "many thousand purchasers of the Vaio PCG laptops." Id.

15. Though Defendant vehemently disputes Plaintiff's damages claims, Plaintiff nonetheless seeks restitution of all monies paid by the class members, among other forms of relief. Though not fully delineated in Plaintiff's Complaint, Sony's U.S. sales of PCG-series notebooks are in excess of 50,000 computers and resulted in revenues exceeding $500 million. Thus the amount-in-controversy requirement under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(6) is met.

16. In addition to the preceding amounts, Plaintiff alleges that he is entitled to an order that Sony engage in a "corrective notice campaign" as well as an order requiring the Company to "refund to Plaintiff and all members of the Class the funds paid to Sony for these defective products." See Complaint "Prayer for Relief" ¶ E. These forms of relief would involve additional costs of compliance. See BEM I, L.L.C. v Anthropologie, Inc., 301 F.3d 548, 553 (7th Cir. 2002) (cost to defendant of complying with injunctive relief may be considered in determining amount-in-controversy for purposes of removal); In re Ford Motor Company/Citibank (So. Dakota), N.A., 264 F.3d. 952, 958 (9th Cir. 2001) ("the test for determining the amount-in-controversy is the pecuniary result to either party which the judgment would directly produce"). This additional requested equitable relief further demonstrates that the amount-in-controversy exceeds $5,000,000.

THE COURT SHOULD NOT DECLINE JURISDICTION

17. Sections 1332(d)(3) and 1332(d)(4) preclude a court from declining to exercise its jurisdiction where less than one-third of the members of a plaintiff's proposed class (in the aggregate) are citizens of the state in which the action was originally filed. That is true of plaintiff's proposed class in this case; less than one-third would be citizens of California.

18. Plaintiff purports to represent a class of "all persons and entities." Plaintiff fails to specify the total number of Californians who would be part of his putative class. Almost all Sony notebooks at issue were sold via a comprehensive national network that consists initially of 75 "customers", many of whom are large national resellers. These customers do not provide Sony with geographic data concerning their sales and resales. Nevertheless, based on its appreciation of the market for consumer electronics, Sony estimates that the geographic distribution of its notebook sales mirrors the distribution of the American population. Because California represented only 12% of the national population in the 2000 census, Sony alleges that the sales of notebooks to California citizens cannot exceed one-third of its total sales.

19. Furthermore, there could be no reason for the Court to decline to exercise jurisdiction in this case even if the number of California class members was above one-third (but below two-thirds). A consideration of the factors set forth in section 1332(d)(3) weighs heavily in favor of retaining federal jurisdiction under CAFA.

20. The claims asserted involve matters of national or interstate interest. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(3)(a). Plaintiff purports to represent similarly situated individuals throughout the United States in bringing claims against Sony for failing to properly manufacture its notebooks and for engaging in unfair, deceptive, and misleading advertising and business practices. Under these circumstances, Plaintiff's claims clearly implicate interstate commerce. The interests of putative plaintiffs in many states will be affected if Plaintiff is ultimately successful in his petition to certify this case as a nationwide class action.

21 Plaintiff, Miguel Cabrera ("Plaintiff" or "Cabrera"), brings this action against Defendant,
22 Sony Electronics Inc., ("Sony" or "Defendant"), on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated 23 and the general public, and alleges upon information and belief, except as to his own actions, the 24 investigation of his counsel, and the facts that are a matter of public record, as follows:
25

26 OVERVIEW

- 27 1. Plaintiff brings this action to obtain damages, restitution, and injunctive

CLERK - SUPERIOR COURT
SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CA

1 relief individually, on behalf of a proposed class defined below ("Class"), and in a representative
2 capacity on behalf of the general public.

3 2. As alleged more fully below, Sony has misrepresented and concealed material
4 information in the marketing, advertising, sale and servicing of the Sony Vaio laptop computers
5 in the PCG series (the "Vaio PCG laptops"). On information and belief, the defects in the Vaio
6 PCG laptops extend to other series of Sony laptops as well, and plaintiff expressly reserves the 7 right to amend this Complaint to include these other series.
8

9 3. Based on information and belief Sony concealed material facts regarding the Vaio
10 PCG laptops, including defects that cause the Vaio PCG laptops to fail at an abnormally high rate
11 and to be unusable in the manner and to the extent which they are advertised.
12

13 4. Upon information and belief, Sony was aware, prior to marketing and selling the 14 Vaio PCG laptops, or at a minimum after they had been selling Vaio PCG laptops for a few 15 months, that the product's power cord connection slots were inherently defective and would 16 cause a substantial number of the Vaio PCG laptops to shut down, not charge their batteries, short
17 circuit the motherboard and require expensive repair, even with normal use. Nevertheless, Sony 18 has not wanted its customers of the problem or tried to prevent them from encountering the 19 problems that occur when a Vaio laptop fails.
20

21 5. Sony has refused, and continues to refuse, to warn consumers about the defects
22 inherent in the Vaio PCG laptops or to effectively remedy the problems and defects inherent in 23 the Vaio PCG laptops. Unwilling to admit fault, Sony has sat silently today as an unacceptable
24 percentage of Vaio PCG laptops fail or become unusable without significant repair.
25
26
27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

8. Plaintiff seeks actual and/or compensatory as well as recoverable statutory and punitive damages, restitution, equitable relief, including the replacement and/or recall of the defective laptops, costs and expenses of litigation, including attorney's fees, and all additional and further relief that may be available.

9. Plaintiff Miguel Cabrera is a citizen of the State of California who resides in Riverside County, California. Plaintiff Cabrera purchased a Vaio PCG in December of 2004 from a Circuit City store in Santa Ana, California. Since that date, as described below, Cabrera has experienced problems with the laptop, including the complete failure of the laptop computer and complete loss of the original motherboard, and he has spent significant time to have this defect repaired after Sony refused to stand behind the product.

10. Defendant Sony is a corporation with its executive offices and principal place of business San Diego County, California. Sony is one of the world's leading manufacturers and sellers of computer-related products and other technology products. Sony's products are purchased by consumers in every county of the State of California and the United States of America.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This action is brought to remedy Sony's violations of state consumer protection and warranty statutes based upon the design, manufacture, distribution, marketing, sale, advertisement and customer service of the Vaio PCG laptops.

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this class and representative action pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq., Cal. Bus. & Prof. § 17500 et seq., Civil Code § 1750 et seq., and Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendant maintains its executive offices and principal place of business in this County, Defendants, conducts substantial business within this County, many of the acts described in this Complaint occurred in and/or were directed from this judicial district, and defending an action here would pose no undue burden on Defendant.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 and Civil Code Section 1781, on behalf of themselves and the following Class:

All persons or entities who purchased Sony Vaio PCG laptops in the PCG series. Excluded from this Class are Defendant, its affiliates, employees, officers and directors, persons or entities which distribute or sell Vaio PCG laptops, and the Court.

Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Class definition and further investigation shows that the Class should be expanded or otherwise modified.

14. The members of the Class are so numerous that jonder of all members would be impracticable. Plaintiff estimates that there are many thousands of purchasers of the Vaio PCG laptops.

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 15. There are questions of law and fact common to the members of the Class that
2 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, including:

3 (a) Whether the Vaio PCG laptops fail at unacceptably high rates, are 4 inherently defective, and are not of merchantable quality;

5 (b) Whether Sony made false and/or misleading statements of fact to the Class
6 and the Public concerning the defects inherent in the Vaio PCG laptops;

7 (c) Whether Sony knew, or was reckless in not knowing, that its statements
8 about the performance and reliability of the Vaio PCG laptops were false and/or misleading;

9 (d) Whether Sony concealed from the Class and the public that the Vaio PCG
10 laptops fail at unacceptably high rates, and inherently defective, and are not of merchantable
11 quality;
12

13 (e) Whether Sony's false and/or misleading statements of fact and its 14 concealment of material fact regarding the performance and reliability of the Vaio PCG laptops
15 were likely to deceive the public;
16

17 (f) Whether, by the misconduct set forth in this Complaint, Sony has engaged
18 in a unfair, deceptive or unlawful business practices with respect to the advertising, marketing
19 and sale of Vaio PCG laptops;
20

21 (g) Whether, by the misconduct as set forth herein, Sony has engaged in 22 unfair, deceptive, untrue, or misleading advertising of the PCG laptops;
23

24 (h) Whether, by its conduct, Sony violated the Consumer Legal Remedies Act,
25 and Song-Beverly Act and other relevant statutes;

26 (i) Whether Sony has breached its warranties to Plaintiff and the Class; and 27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 (j) Whether, as a result of Sony's misconduct, Plaintiff and the Class are 2 entitled to compensatory, statutory and/or punitive damages, restitution, equitable relief and/or 3 other damages and relief, and, if so, the amount of such relief.

4 16. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class. Plaintiff
5 has no interests antagonistic to those of the Class and is subject to no unique defenses.
6

7 17. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and has 8 retained attorneys experienced in class and complex litigation.

9 18. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
10 adjudication of this controversy for the following reasons:

11 (a) It is economically impractical for members of the Class to prosecute
12 individual actions;
13

14 (b) The Class is readily definable;

15 (c) Prosecution as a class action will eliminate the possibility of repetitious 16 litigations; and
17

18 (d) A class action will enable claims to be handled in an orderly and 19 expeditious manner. A class action will save time and expense and will ensure uniformity of 20 decisions.

21 19. Plaintiff does not anticipate any difficulty in the management of this litigation.

22 20. California, as the site of Sony's headquarters and the place where all significant
23 decision-making occurred with respect to the Vaio PCG laptops, is the center of gravity for this
24 action such that it is appropriate and consistent with existing law to certify the class of consumers
25 proposed in this Complaint.
26

27 21. Certification of such a class under the laws of California is appropriate because:
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 (a) Sony is a corporation conducting substantial business in and from
2 California;

3 (b) Sony's principal and executive offices, as well as its corporate
4 headquarters, are located in California;

5 (c) Sony's marketing, promotional activities and literature are coordinated at,
6 emanate from, and/or are developed as its California headquarters;

7 (d) The UCL and other claims asserted in this Complaint expressly 8 apply to claims asserted by out-of-state Class members regarding false representations and 9 unfair/deceptive business practices emanating from the State of California; and 10

11 (e) A significant number of Class members reside in the State of California.
12

13 PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

14 22. In addition to asserting class action claims in this action, Plaintiff asserts claims as 15 a private attorney general on behalf of the members of the general public pursuant to Business
16 and Professions Code Sections 17204 and 17535. This purpose of such claims is to require
17 Defendant to disgorge and restore all monies wrongfully obtained by Defendant through its false
18 advertising, unfair business practices and other violations of UCL. A private attorney general
19 action is necessary and appropriate because Defendant has engaged and continues to engage in 20 the wrongful acts and false advertising described herein as a general business practice.
21

22 SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

23 23. Sony is one the world's largest computer manufacturers.
24

25 24. Sony represented and advertised the Vaio PCG laptops are reliable
26 laptop option. The Vaio PCG laptops are typically priced in the $1,500-$2,500 range. Plaintiff's 27 experiences, mirroring those of thousands of other Sony purchasers who have recounted their 28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 problems with the Vaio laptop series, demonstrate that Sony's representations about the quality
2 and reliability of the Vaio PCG laptops were untrue.

3 25. Plaintiff purchased a Vaio PCG-550 laptop for approximately $1,700 from a
4 Circuit City store in Santa Ana California in December of 2004.

5 26. A little over a year after Plaintiff purchased his Vaio PCG laptop, it stopped 6 charging the battery and eventually the power cord slot caused a "short" which burnt the 7 motherboard rendering the computer useless.

8 27. After not receiving service from Sony, Plaintiff eventually sent the laptop to a
9 computer repair business that he discovered. This computer repair business had developed a niche
10 repairing this defect in the PCG laptop's power cord issue, as numerous consumers have 11 experienced precisely the same problem because of the defects in the PCG series of laptops.
12

13 28. Plaintiff was eventually told that the mother board needed to be replaced and that 14 the cost may be over $900.
15

16 29. Upon information and belief, at least thousands of consumers have encountered
17 precisely the same and related failures as the problems experienced by Plaintiff with the Vaio
18 PCG laptops.
19

20 30. Upon information and belief, Sony personnel have attempted to conceal the 21 defects in the Vaio PCG laptops by falsely claiming to many of the consumers who call that they 22 are not aware of any problem with the Vaio PCG laptops.
23

24 31. To date, Sony remains unwilling and/or unable to take any effective action to 25 remedy the defects in the Vaio PCG laptops.

26 32. The harm caused by Defendant's false and misleading statements and omissions
27 grossly outweighs any benefit that could be attributed to them.
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 33. Defendant is and has been aware of the scope of the problems with the Vaio PCG
2 laptops but has failed to take substantial corrective action. Sony has taken only minimal action
3 response to consumer complaints and, instead, has responded by seeking to "run out the clock" on 4 the warranties that accompanied the Vaio PCG laptops. Defendant has failed to even notify its 5 customers of the problems or advise them to have their laptops inspected to repair the defects.
6

7 34. Unless notice is provided to the Class and a recall instituted, most other users of 8 Vaio PCG laptops will eventually suffer the same fate, at considerable costs, expense and loss as 9 Plaintiff has suffered to date and continues to suffer.

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 Violations of Unfair Competition Law
12 (Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq.)
13

14 35. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the above allegations by reference as if set
15 forth fully herein.

16 36. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of himself, on behalf of the Class,
17 and in his capacity as private attorney general.
18

19 37. Defendant has engaged in unfair, unlawful, and fraudulent business practices as set
20 forth above.

21 38. By engaging in the above-described acts and practices, Defendant has committed
22 one or more acts of unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code §
23 17200 et seq.
24

25 39. Defendant's acts and practices have deceived and/or are likely to deceive members
26 of the consuming public.
27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

41. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of the Class and the general public, seeks an order of this Court awarding restitution, disgorgement, injunctive relief and all other relief allowed under Section 17200 et seq., plus interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to, inter alia, Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 1021.5.

Untrue and Misleading Advertising.
(Violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500 et seq.)

45. Sony has engaged in the advertising and marketing alleged herein with intent to directly or indirectly induce the purchase of Vaio PCG laptops.

10

1 46. Sony's advertisements and marketing representations regarding the technical and
2 other characteristics of Vaio PCG laptops are false, misleading, and deceptive as set forth more
3 fully above.

4 47. At the time it made and disseminated the statements alleged herein. Sony knew of 5 should have known that the statements were untrue or misleading and acted in violation of Cal.
6 Bus. And Prof. Code Sections 17500 et seq.

7
8 48. Sony actively concealed its knowledge that Vaio PCG laptops contain inherent 9 defects.

10 49. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of the Class, seeks restitution,
11 disgorgement, injunctive relief, and all other relief allowable under Section 17500 et seq.
12

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Violation of CLRA)

15 50. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates the above allegations by reference as if set forth
16 herein at length.

17 51. This claim arises under the Consumer Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA"), Civil Code
18 §§ 1750 et seq.

19 52. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was a "consumer" at that term is defined in 20 Civ. Code § 1761(d).

21 53. At all times relevant hereto, Sony's Vaio PCG laptops constituted "goods" as that 22 term is defined in Civ. Code § 1761(a).

23 54. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant constituted a "person" as that term is 24 defined in Civ. Code § 1761(c).

25
26
27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 55. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff's purchase of Defendant's Vaio PCG laptop
2 constituted a "transaction" as that term is defined in Civ. Code §1761(e).

3 56. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant provided "services" to Plaintiff and the 4 Class within the meaning of Civ. Code § 1761(b).

5 57. The CLRA provides in relevant part that "[t]he following unfair methods of 6 competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices undertaken by any person in a transaction
7 intended to result or which results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer are 8 unlawful: (5) Representing that goods...have...approval, characteristics, uses, benefits...which 9 they do not have, (7) Representing that goods...are of a particular standard, quality or grade...if 10 they are of another, (9) Advertising goods...with intent not to sell them as advertised." Civil 11 Code §§ 1770(a)(5),(7) and (9).
12

13 58. Defendant made and continues to make uniform written representations that the 14 Vaio PCG laptop is a high quality product that will perform as represented. These 15 representations, as set forth above, were false, deceptive and/or misleading and were in violation
16 of the CLRA.
17

18 59. Plaintiff is a consumer under Civil Code § 1761(d). Civil Code § 1780 (a)(2)
19 permits any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin practices that violate Civil Code § 1770.
20

21 60. Plaintiff also is entitled to recover actual or statutory compensatory/monetary
22 damages as authorized by Civil Code § 1780(a)(1), restitution as applicable and authorized by 23 Civil Code § 1780(a)(3) and punitive damages as authorized by Civil Code § 1780(a)(4), which
24 are appropriate in this case in light of Defendant's knowing, intentional, malicious, fraudulent
25 and unconscionable conduct, Defendant's reckless disregard of its legal obligations to Plaintiff
26 and the Class and/or otherwise recoverable under Civil Code § 1780(a)(4).
27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 61. Plaintiff and the Class also are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs
2 pursuant to Civil Code §§ 1780 and 1781.

3 62. Under Civil Code § 1782(a), Plaintiff provided the required thirty (30) day notice
4 before filing this Amended Complaint pursuant Civil Code § 1782(d).

5 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Breach of Express Warranty)

7
8 63. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the above allegations by reference as if set
9 forth herein at length.

10 64. Under the explicit terms of Sony's warranty, Vaio PCG laptops came with and 11 express warranty.

12
13 65. Sony's written warranty stated that the Vaio PCG laptops were free of defects in 14 materials and workmanship.

15 66. Sony breached its express warranties, as set forth above, by supplying Vaio PCG
16 laptops in condition where they do not meet the warranty obligations undertaken by Sony.

17 67. Sony has received timely notice of the breaches of warranty alleged herein
18 pursuant to Commercial Code § 2607(3)(A).

19
20 68. In addition, Sony has received, upon information and belief, thousands of 21 complaints and other notices from its customers worldwide advising Sony of the defects in the 22 Vaio PCG laptops, including hundreds (if not thousands) from California residents and residents
23 of the United States. Despite this notice and Sony's knowledge, Sony refuses to honor its 24 warranty, even though it knows of the inherent defect in the Vaio PCG laptops.
25
26
27
28

CLASS ACTION & REP ACTION CPLT FOR VIOLATION OF STATE
CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS

1 69. Sony has failed to provide to Plaintiff of the Class, as warranty replacement, a
2 product that conforms to the qualities and characteristics that Sony expressly warranted when it
3 sold Vaio PCG laptops to Plaintiff and members of the Class.

4 70. Applying any warranty limitation to avoid the need to repair this particular defect
5 would be unconscionable in that, inter alia, the Vaio PCG laptops contained an inherent defect
6 that was already present at the time of purchase and Sony knew, or was reckless in not knowing,
7 about this defect, which could not be discovered by Plaintiff and members of the Class at the time
8 of purchase, and purchasers lacked any meaningful choice with respect to the warranty terms.

9 71. As result of Sony's breach of warranty, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered 10 damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

12
13 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 Violation of Song-Beverly Warranty Act
15 (Civil Code § 1790 et seq.)

16 72. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the above allegations by reference as if set
17 forth herein at length.

18 73. The Vaio PCG laptops are "consumer good" within the meaning of Civil Code §
19 1791(a).

20 74. Sony's express warranty and implied warranty of merchantability arose out of 21 and/or were related to the sales of the Vaio PCG laptops.

22 75. As more fully set forth above, Sony has failed to comply with its obligations under 23 its express warranty and its implied warranty of merchantability.

24 76. Plaintiff and the Class have suffered and will continue to suffer damages as a
25 result of Sony's failure to comply with its warranty obligations. Accordingly, Plaintiff and all

1 Class members are entitled to recover damages under the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act,
2 including damages, pursuant to Civil Code §§ 1791.1(d) and 1794.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the 5 General Public, prays for judgment against Defendants granting relief:
6

7 A. An order certifying this case as a class action and appointing Plaintiff and his
8 counsel to represent the Class;

9 B. Restitution and disgorgement of all amounts obtained by Sony as a result of its 10 misconduct, together with interest thereon from the date of payment, to the victims of such 11 violations;
12

13 C. Actual and/or statutory damages for injuries suffered by Plaintiff and the Class in 14 the maximum amount permitted by applicable law;

15 D. Punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact;

16 E. An order requiring Sony to immediately cease its wrongful conduct as set forth
17 above; enjoining Sony from continuing to falsely market and advertise, conceal material 18 information and conduct business via the unlawful, unfair and deceptive business acts and 19 practices complained of herein; ordering Sony to engage in a corrective notice campaign; and 20 requiring Sony to refund to Plaintiff and all members of the Class the funds paid to Sony for these 21 defective products;
22

23 F. Reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs of prosecuting this action;

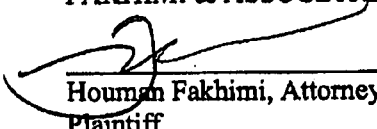

24 G. Statutory pre-judgment interest; and

25 H. Such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

CLERK-SUPERIOR COURT
SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CA

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEETTo Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers.

If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases.

In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

CASE NUMBER: 37-2007-00084569-CU-BC-CTL CASE TITLE: Cabrera vs. Sony Electronics, Inc.

NOTICE TO LITIGANTS/ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE

You are required to serve a copy of this Notice to Litigants/ADR Information Package and a copy of the blank Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution Process (received from the Civil Business Office at the time of filing) with a copy of the Summons and Complaint on all defendants in accordance with San Diego Superior Court Rule 2.1.5, Division II and CRC Rule 201.9.

ADR POLICY

It is the policy of the San Diego Superior Court to strongly support the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in all general civil cases. The court has long recognized the value of early case management intervention and the use of alternative dispute resolution options for amenable and eligible cases. The use of ADR will be discussed at all Case Management Conferences. It is the court's expectation that litigants will utilize some form of ADR – i.e. the court's mediation or arbitration programs or other available private ADR options as a mechanism for case settlement before trial.

ADR OPTIONS

1) CIVIL MEDIATION PROGRAM: The San Diego Superior Court Civil Mediation Program is designed to assist parties with the early resolution of their dispute. All general civil independent calendar cases, including construction defect, complex and eminent domain cases are eligible to participate in the program. Limited civil collection cases are not eligible at this time. San Diego Superior Court Local Rule 2.31, Division II addresses this program specifically. Mediation is a non-binding process in which a trained mediator 1) facilitates communication between disputants, and 2) assists parties in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of all or part of their dispute. In this process, the mediator carefully explores not only the relevant evidence and law, but also the parties' underlying interests, needs and priorities. The mediator is not the decision-maker and will not resolve the dispute – the parties do. Mediation is a flexible, informal and confidential process that is less stressful than a formalized trial. It can also save time and money, allow for greater client participation and allow for more flexibility in creating a resolution.

Assignment to Mediation, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to mediation at any time up to the CMC or may stipulate to mediation at the CMC. Mediator fees and expenses are split equally by the parties, unless otherwise agreed. Mediators on the court's approved panel have agreed to the court's payment schedule for county-referred mediation: $150.00 per hour for each of the first two hours and their individual rate per hour thereafter. Parties may select any mediator, however, the court maintains a panel of court-approved mediators who have satisfied panel requirements and who must adhere to ethical standards. All court-approved mediator fees and other policies are listed in the Mediator Directory at each court location to assist parties with selection. Discovery: Parties do not need to conduct full discovery in the case before mediation is considered, utilized or referred. Attendance at Mediation: Trial counsel, parties and all persons with full authority to settle the case must personally attend the mediation, unless excused by the court for good cause.

2) JUDICIAL ARBITRATION: Judicial Arbitration is a binding or non-binding process where an arbitrator applies the law to the facts of the case and issues an award. The goal of judicial arbitration is to provide parties with an adjudication that is earlier, faster, less formal and less expensive than trial. The arbitrator's award may either become the judgment in the case if all parties accept or if no trial de novo is requested within the required time. Either party may reject the award and request a trial de novo before the assigned judge if the arbitration was non-binding. If a trial de novo is requested, the trial will usually be scheduled within a year of the filing date.

Assignment to Arbitration, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to binding or non-binding judicial arbitration or the judge may order the matter to arbitration at the case management conference, held approximately 150 days after filing, if a case is valued at under $50,000 and is "at issue". The court maintains a panel of approved judicial arbitrators who have practiced law for a minimum of five years and who have a certain amount of trial and/or arbitration experience. In addition, if parties select an arbitrator from the court's panel, the court will pay the arbitrator's fees. Superior Court

3) SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES: The goal of a settlement conference is to assist the parties in their efforts to negotiate a settlement of all or part of the dispute. Parties may, at any time, request a settlement conference before the judge assigned to their case; request another assigned judge or a pro tem to act as settlement officer; or may privately utilize the services of a retired judge. The court may also order a case to a mandatory settlement conference prior to trial before the court's assigned Settlement Conference judge.
